BNSF Logistics Opens Office in St. Petersburg Florida

January 2, 2018

Dallas, TX – BNSF Logistics, LLC, a leading multi-modal third-party logistics service provider, announces a new office in St. Petersburg, Florida. This further strengthens BNSF Logistics' service offering across North America and provides additional local resources to support this global company.

The St. Petersburg office will be led by Sam Garnatz as Branch Manager and he will be transferring from the Downtown Chicago office. Sam comes into the Branch Manager role with more than seven years of logistics experience including two-and-a-half years as an Account Manager within BNSF Logistics.

"The Tampa Bay, FL region is one of the fastest growing areas in the country due to its reasonable cost of living, overall quality of life, and opportunities for recent college graduates in a variety of industries. Specifically, we chose to locate the office in downtown St. Petersburg. It's an attractive area that allows us to pull candidates from 3 surrounding counties; Hillsborough, Pinellas, and Manatee. We are excited to get started in our new space in January 2018," says Jason Skorczewski, Regional Manager for BNSF Logistics, LLC.
