BNSF Logistics Wins National Award

June 26, 2012 – Springdale, Ark. – BNSF Logistics, a leading, global third party logistics firm (3PL), was named the “Best 3PL for Renewable Energy Supply Chains” at the annual eyefortransport North American 3PL Awards held in Chicago, IL.

The eyefortransport 3PL Awards aim to recognize those 3PLs that continuously deliver excellence in logistics operations and superior service to their customers each year. Shortlisted by a panel of industry experts, the nominees are voted on and winners decided by North American 3PL customers – the manufacturers and retailers who depend on and work with logistics service-providers every day.

“Receiving this prestigious award is much appreciated validation that the marketplace recognizes our commitment, as well as the resources and talent, we’ve dedicated to developing innovative logistics solutions in the dynamic market of renewable energy,” said Jim Craig, Chief Marketing Officer at BSNF Logistics.

The awards reception was hosted by eyefortransport and attended by senior management from the winning 3PLs, the nominees and hundreds of their customers. Representatives from over 40 major 3PLs, as well as Heads of Supply Chain for major 3PL users were in attendance.
